FACILITY SAFETY

Fr. Guency and now Fr. Zelonis have been working with Ed Tarentelli in implementing some safety measures in and around St. Joseph the Worker Parish. For those that do not know, Ed Tarentelli has a great deal of experience, being a police officer most of his life and now a district court magistrate. His work dealt often within schools including North Schuylkill.

He also assisted St. Ignatius Church set up security measures, as well.

Ed and the West Mahanoy Township Police Chief did a security assessment for our church building and we are going to explain some of what we have done in conjunction with their recommendations.

First, you may have noticed we have a sign on the left-hand side of the outside of the church (looking at the church from road).

This sign states the church name and address in the event you must give it to authorities due to an emergency.

We also have signage around the rectory and in the grove stating No Trespass & No Soliciting.

Each door on the church building is numbered in the upper corner. If anyone needs to contact emergency personnel, they should give the name and address of the church (on sign) and the door number closest to the reason for contacting them. This will allow them to be able to get to the emergency and not waste time figuring out which door to enter.

Rear pew was removed to allow those with wheelchairs, walkers, etc. to easily enter in and out of the church area.

There have been many other items completed in securing the church while parishioners and visitors are attending Masses, adoration, etc.

Please note we currently have implemented all security recommendations.

Should you have any questions or comments, kindly call the Office at 570-874-0610 ext. 4 or speak with our Pastor, Fr. Zelonis.
