33 Days to Eucharistic Glory – Diocesan Eucharistic Consecration

Brothers and sisters, in this 65th Jubilee Year, Bishop Schlert invites us to join a Diocesan-wide Eucharistic Consecration. Beginning May 5, for 33 days, we will prepare our hearts to consecrate ourselves to Jesus in the Most Holy Eucharist on Corpus Christi Sunday, June 7. Free copies of 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory by Matthew Kelly are available in the Vestibule of the church—please if you have not already done so, take one and walk this journey with us.

Corpus Christi is a Latin phrase meaning "Body of Christ," referring to a major Roman Catholic feast celebrating the real presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. Officially known as the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, it honors the transubstantiation of bread and wine into Christ's body and blood.

DAILY PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER

Glorious St. Joseph, patron of all who are devoted to toil, obtain for me the grace to toil in the spirit of penance in order to thereby atone for my many sins; to toil conscientiously, putting devotion to duty before my own inclinations; to labor in thankfulness and joy, deeming it an honor to employ and to develop, by my labors, the gifts I have received from Almighty God; to work with order, peace, moderation and patience, without ever shrinking from weariness and difficulties; to work above all with a pure intention and with detachment from self; having always before my eyes the hour of death and the accounting which I must then render of time ill-spent, of talents unemployed, of good undone, and of my empty pride in success, which is so fatal to the work of God.

All for Jesus, all through Mary, all in imitation of thee O Patriarch Joseph.

This shall be my motto in life and in death. Amen.

St. Joseph most faithful, pray for us.

St. Joseph, Patron of all who labor pray for us.
